4. COMMENTARY

The Company's NAV decreased by USD 2.1m for the six months ended 30 June 2023 (June 2022: (USD 2.2m)). The contributing factors to the movement in NAV were the stronger USD against the Tadvest basket of currencies, contributed USD 3.5m towards the decrease in NAV as the ZAR, EUR and AUD all weakened from 31 December 2022 to 30 June 2023. Dividends of USD 0.27m were received from Alphamin during the period.

The Company's liquidity position remained strong at 30 June 2023 with USD 3.5m in cash and cash equivalents. The Company's cash is currently held between the BlackRock Liquidity Fund (USD 3.4m) and the various Company bank accounts (USD 0.1m).

Tadvest received an inter-company loan repayment from Trakka Corp in March 2023, reducing the loan in line with the underlying cashflow forecasts. The Company is actively managing its investment companies need for capital versus the value generated off this capital by each investment company.

The Company did not re-value any of its unlisted or property investments during the quarter, in line with the Company's valuation policy.

5. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

There have been no material events after the reporting date that would require disclosure or adjustment to the quarterly financial statements for the period ended 30 June 2023.
